MISREPRESENTATION.

In the Standard of Tuesday morning is an article of over half a column, addressed to the "Congress of the United States," which is but a part and parcel of a plan adopted for the accomplishment of a nefarious purpose, the embodiment of which is comprised in the odious bill introduced by Shoffner into the Legislature, to place extraordinary powers in the hands of the Governor and the Courts. We say this article is but a prop, or part of the machinery for pushing through that iniquitous measure, which is, itself, designed, planned and purposed for the accomplishment of an ulterior object—the perpetuating the power, and the staving off of investigation into the mismanagement and corruption, of the present Radical administration. But it is not our purpose at present to criticize this bill or its objects; we shall do that more at length hereafter. But to the article of the Standard.

We say—and we use no nicknames or honeyed phrases in saying it—that in this article, "to the Congress of the United States," there is more falsehood, misrepresentation, malliguity and mischief comprised, than could be put in the same amount of space, in the same sized type, on any other subject, except, perhaps, it were captions of the acts of parliament of the Infernal regions; and that could not excel it.

The article begins with a falsehood—continues with a falsehood, and ends with a falsehood; it is, in letter and spirit, the crab dim ut and quintessence of falsehood and mischievous misrepresentation.

It starts out with the assertion that in North Carolina "there is a set of murderous men who defy the laws of the State." The intimation that such is the case in North Carolina more than in New York, Massachusetts, or any other Northern State, is utterly untrue. That bad men commit crimes, and that they sometimes conspire together for the accomplishment of their unlawful plans, is simply true of North Carolina, and no more so, as of other States, North or South. The intimation that such men have not been punished when found out, or that they have successfully resisted legal authority, is a falsehood so barefaced that the writer of the article in the Standard, (for the Editor didn't write it,) dare not attempt to sustain his assertion by the citation of a single instance.

The charge in this article that the Democrats or Conservatives of this State desire to remand the negroes into slavery, or to deprive them of their just rights; or that they have organized ku klux klans, as they are called, for any such purpose is equally false and malignant. That outrages have been committed by persons in disguise, and that they have taken the punishment of notorious rogues and neighborhood nuisances into their own hands, must be admitted, and if the victims are invariably Republicans, the misfortune, or the crime is theirs. But we deny that the victims are invariably Republicans, and we will go farther and say that, for every instance of outrage against a Republican, without regard to the badness of his character, we will name one on a Democrat or Conservative of unimpeached character. But these things only prove that there are bad men whose propensities were developed by the war, and not that the Democrat or Conservative party of this State have organized under ku klux or any other name, to overawe men in their political rights or to resist the proper execution of the laws, and any assertion or insinuation to that effect is a black, base and malignant falsehood come from what source it may.

The real traitors to the State and to the General Government are those who, from the dark caverns of their own perverted false and corrupt hearts, pour fourth from day to day, and from week to week, vile slanders and infamously false charges against men who, while they desire to live in peace and promote harmony, have the manliness and virtue to despise such sneaks and scoundrels as the disjointed times have placed in a position to oppress the people and plunder the State. And it is a truth that on the least remonstrance, or sign of resistance to their diabolical roguery and corruption, the cry is raised, as in the article under consideration, "the rebellion is not conquered; the Government is in danger!" and an appeal to the bayonet is at once made.

The great reason for all this in North Carolina, at present is, that the party leaders feel the necessity of raising a dust to blind the people and draw off their attention from the investigation of their corrupt and fraudulent practices, which have brought the State to the verge of bankruptcy and repudiation; and for the further reason that the enormity of their claim to hold power two years longer is so glaring as even to appal the boldest in their own ranks, and they desire to get up excitement and confusion for the next summer elections; knowing as they well do, that if the election be peacefully and fairly conducted, they will sink like lead to their native mud and ooze.

We shall allude to this subject again, and often; it shall be fully ventilated, and we mean to do it with gloves off.

HORRID MURDER.

The stable of Mr. C. E. Parrish was fired about 10 o'clock on Christmas night. The incendiary was seen to run from the stable just before the flames were discovered.

Reuben Blalock was found, on Christmas morning, on his bed with his skull broken and his throat cut entirely across, a rope tied around his neck and his mouth stuffed with rags. This foul murder was perpetrated in the very heart of the town. The victim was a clerk in the retail liquor shop kept by Mr. John Utley. The incentive to the murder was plunder. A decanter of whiskey and $165 in money was taken from the house.

Reuben Blalock was a son of Hartwell Blalock residing near Durhams in Orange county, who had six sons and two sons in-law in the Confederate army, all of whom were lost but Reuben, and he was maimed for life, and had but recently laid aside his crutches and used a stick to enable him to walk. Reuben was a frugal, sober, industrious young man, using most of his scanty earnings in the support of his parents, his widowed sisters and their orphan children.

No family of our acquaintance furnished more or better soldiers for Lee's army, or battled harder for the "Lost Cause," and none lost more in proportion to their means by the fortune of war. Hartwell Blalock's loss was all in blood; he had neither slaves nor land. But it was the blood that may be relied on.

When we were last at the house of Hartwell Blalock, in 1865, he and his wife, who had both attained to the allotted "threescore and ten," two widowed daughters, three widowed daughters-in-law, and grand children innumerable, with this son, Reuben, maimed for life, composed the family.

The circumstances of this bereaved family appeal to the sympathy and charity of the public. We have mentioned their case only to the employees of the SENTINEL office, each of whom, black and white, has contributed to their relief, and the contributions sent by mail to Mr. George Miller, Railroad Agent at Durhams, who, on reading this, will please receive and deliver it. Perhaps others may be willing to contribute to their help—ex-Confederate soldiers, mothers and even children, might be willing to spend a quarter or more in that direction. If so, it would be well appropriated.

It is proper to say that this suggestion does not come from any member of the family, nor even from a neighbor, but from our own knowledge of their destitute condition, rendered still more destitute by this sad bereavement.

Up to the latest accounts, no clue to the murderer or murderers had been found. Nor any discovery as to the incendiary who fired the stables of Mr. Parrish.

CHRISTMAS IS OVER with most people, especially with the printer. We had a rainy, muddy, murky, disagreeable time of it out doors, from Saturday morning to Monday night. But we had a good time, nevertheless; part of it was spent in social converse with cherished friends; a part in partaking of the "creature comforts" without the addition of "spirituous liquors, wine or cider," and a part in reading good and entertaining books, &c. We are now prepared to stretch the harness and make a vigorous pull for the twelve-month trip ahead of us, and hope to come in without a capsize, and duly prepared for rational enjoyment of the next Christmas holidays.

We would moralize somewhat on this occasion, but conceive it rather useless.

ECONOMY OF THE GRANT ADMINISTRATION.

The late Radical papers are publishing with a considerable flourish the statement of the New York Tribune, that Grant's administration has cost the country for one year $581,060,000 less than President Johnson's. This was shown to be a very great blunder. It is said "figures will not lie," and they show the sort of economy that is being practiced by the Grant administration. Secretary Boutwell has prepared the estimates of appropriations required to meet all expenses of the government for the current fiscal year. He estimates as follows:

Legislative,	$5,549,964 23
Executive,	50,440 00
State,	1,306,724 00
Treasury,	165,416,701 00
Interior,	39,993 829 51
War,	50,575,591 30
Navy,	28,441,661 37
Agricultural,	252,070 00
Postoffice,	39,134 764 21
Judicial,	375,990 00
Total,	$331,097,823 62

The appropriations last year for all branches of the government were only $281,415,288 61, which makes an excess asked for this year of $49,682,557 01.

This is running the various departments economically with a vengeance, and, as an instance of how economy is practiced in the Treasury Department itself, it may be stated that a little item of $14,000 is paid yearly by Mr. Boutwell in the Secretary's office, to a number of his favored stipendiaries, who draw that amount over and above their regular salaries for what is called extra service, which extra service is just nothing at all.—Savannah News

A TALE OF A MERRY CHRISTMAS CAROLL SUNG BY WOMEN.—"There was sometime an old Knight who, being disposed to make himself merry in a Christmas time, sent for many of his tenants and poor neighbors, with their wives, for dinner; when, having made meat to be sent on the table, would suffer no man to drinke till he that was master ouer his wife should sing a carroll, to excuse all the company. Great niceenese there was who should be the musician, now the cuckoo time was so far off. Yet, with much ador, looking one upon another, after a dry homme or two, a dreaming companion drew out as much as he durst towards an ill-fashioned ditty.—When, having made an end, to the great comfort of the beholders, at last it came to the woman's table, where, likewise commandment was given that there should no drink be touched till she that was master ouer her husband had sung a Christmas carroll; whereupon they fell all to such a singing that there was never heard such a catterwalling peece of musicke; whereat the Knight laughed heartely, that it did him halfe as much good as a corner of his Christmas pie."

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, }
Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 28, 1869. }

Gen. Milton S. Littlefield:

MY DEAR GENERAL—We have at last reached the "Rubicon," and we must cross or be lost; it will not do to "pause upon the brink." What my soul has ever long'd for, was social position, power and money. I am, (or ought to be) in virtue of my office, in the first class socially; Shoffner's bill will give me power, and you, dear General, by the purchase of my old press and type, have given me money; so that, now, every dream of my young ambition is realized.

The question now is, How much more will the people stand? They are complaining of their burdensome debts and taxes; my Treasurer, David, in whom I have confidence, as I have officially declared, so long as he will be advised by the old Treasurer, Kemp Battle, says, that for the next year the taxes and burthens must necessarily be greatly increased, in which case I fear the people will revolt or repudiate.

If we could only do something to stop the clamor of Joe Turner through the SENTINEL it would be a good point made. I did hope, at one time that he would be finished off and done for; and on being disappointed, (you know the time to which I allude) I allowed my rage to get the better of my judgment, and spoke out rather imprudently, but my speech had the effect to arouse my faithful leaguers, who would have finished the contumacious rebel then and there, had not the chief of Police cocked his pistol and threatened to shoot down the first man guilty of a breach of the Peace.

When Jefferson Davis suspended the writ of habeas corpus, I suspended the publication of the Standard for fear he might suspend me. When I get power to suspend the writ, through Shoffner's bill, I may, perhaps, be able to intimidate Turner and make him suspend the publication of the SENTINEL. The bill allowing the Judges to punish the rascal for contempt seems to have made no impression on his nervous system; but this may be owing to want of nerve on the part of our friend Tourgee.—My friend Cloud said he would put him in Jail. If we could get Tourgee and Cantwell to swap circuits next Spring, Cantwell would jury him, certain; he would teach him how it is to publish judges for being drunk and myself for going to Pepper's.—Cantwell is a genius, he served through the war and never got struck. By saying this I mean no disparagement to Rodman, for the same is equally true of him. The same may be said of our friend Settle, with this modification, he did not go through the whole war, but served twelve months as a volunteer, and, like parson Sinclair, wishes to be considered a conscript.

This bill of Shoffner's gives me great concern. It is a strong measure to be adopted in time of profound tranquility, and strong measures, like heavy swords in weak hands, are always dangerous. My Adjutant General, Fisher, puts down the expense of the little militia excursion to Jones County at two thousand, one hundred and thirteen dollars and eighty one cents. How he got the one cent in the bill I can't see, but I am no financeer as my Treasurer is.

I send you a copy of my son-in-law Lewis's report as Attorney General. It is an able State paper and does credit to him, myself, Joe, Calvin and the party. He begins by feelingly alluding to my tendering him the appointment, and concludes by a delicate and touching allusion to "a patriotic Executive," all of which proves Lewis not only a man of ability, but a dutiful son-in-law.

I am thinking seriously of coming out in a special message to the Legislature relative to the use of North Carolina bonds in Florida. If I could only do so, my dear General, without compromizing you, I should not hesitate. It strikes me I have, in a slight degree, implicated myself in that matter. Except Gov. Read, of Florida, no Chief Executive was ever so reticent before, when every man, even our own party, is crying out against the public plunder and robbery now going on, as it is said by our friends. Some people call me coward, but, General, it requires true Roman courage to keep silent as I have done. General Dockery, Marshall Carrow, uncle Johnny Harrison, Dr. Grissom and our more humble friend, Justice Adams, have all shown a want of moral courage in speaking out as they have. Yes, they have broken silence on your bond operations, though some of them have not gone quite so far, or so far forgot themselves as to call it stealing; they only allude to the matter as "manipulating" or "operating in stocks and State bonds." Th se nicknames are very convenient, for, though you may not so feel it, General, it is unpleasant to have such harsh charges as "stealing", "swindling" and the like brought against one.

You must come home for a few days and endeavor in your insinuating way, to persuade our friends to observe a prudent silence, for it will, I fear, be construed to the discredit of the Chief Executive, if all the world, and some of our friends especially, shall speak out, and he should cower in silence, while Jones and Sloan, (and pardon me, General, but they do say, you,) are enjoying the benefits of what the over-squeamish call, the plundering of the people.

A merry Christmas and a happy new year to yourself and your friend,

W. W. HOLDEN.

GOV BULLOCK'S SECOND CASTIGATION.—In the reply which Tift made to Governor Bullock before the Reconstruction Committee, carpet-bagger received a most terrible castigation from the fiery and excited Southerner, enraged by the manner in which Bullock had aspersed and slandered the people of Georgia in his speech. Mr. Tift, after he had made an able argument exposing the schemes of the conspirators and showing the injustice of the proposed legislation, turned upon the former and lashed him unmercifully. He openly charged him with stealing the money belonging to the State and said to the Committee "If Bullock had proper judicial attention paid to him he would soon be transferred from the Gubernatorial mansion to a cell in the penitentiary, where it would cost much less for the State to support him than it does at the present."

During the delivery of this invective, Bullock writhed and twisted himself about but made no movement to resent it, and when the storm of abuse was over got up and whined a reply to the effect that his "political and not his private character was under investigation."—Aug. Chron.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL AND THE GIFT ENTERPRISE SWINDLERS.—The "gift enterprise swindlers" are about to be hoisted on their own petards. The Postmaster General has issued instructions that all letters addressed to the swindling concerns, well known to the employees of the post-office, shall be sent to the Dead Letter office at Washington.

A CURIOUS WILL CASE.—For years past an interesting will case has been pending in the Courts of Franklin county, Missouri, which is of a nature at once novel and curious. Some years ago, in the town of Washington, there lived a bachelor possessed of considerable property. Being taken ill, he devised a will leaving his worldly possessions to the children of a friend, making no mention of a needy relative. This fact being noised abroad, three friends of the latter determined to visit the sick man, and endeavor to induce him to make another will, in favor of this relative. He consented to do so; materials were procured, and one of the party proceeded to write the document as dictated by the man, but, before it was signed he died. The three persons who had no personal interest in the matter, had been drinking, and were somewhat intoxicated. One of them took a hand of the dead man, placed a pen between the fingers, and thus signed the name to the will. Another asked the dead to acknowledge the signature, and the third caused the head to nod affirmatively. The three then signed as witnesses. All parties to the occurrence are now dead, and the suit is to decide as to the proper construction of this will; the writer of which being in liquor, having so blended sentences together as to make its meaning very obscure.

A NEW STEAMSHIP LINE.—It affords us pleasure to state, as an unfailing evidence of increasing business prosperity, that a new steamship line is to be started between this city and New York. The new line will be owned by Robt. M. Funkhouse, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., now of New York, who is an old acquaintance of our enterprising merchantile friend C. W. McLean, Esq., and by whom he was induced to establish the line. The pioneer of this opposition line will be the elegant iron steamship Don, capable of freighting 800 bales of cotton. This vessel is represented to us as peculiarly adapted to the trade between New York and Newbern. She is expected to arrive the latter part of next week, though circumstances may delay her a few days longer.

Mr. B. L. Perry, who has already, in a few month's time, established a large shipping business in this city, is to have the conduct of the new enterprise. In a few days he will make the necessary announcement to shippers.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

WE COPY the following from the Harrisburg, (Pa.) Morning Patriot, for the information of any of our Western readers who may be engaged, or contemplate engaging in the iron business:

UPRIGHT BLOWING ENGINE.—We yesterday morning had the pleasure of examining the design of an engine for blowing the charcoal furnace of George Merkel, Esq., of Hamburg, Berks county, Pa., now under construction at the Harrisburg Steam Engine Works. The air, steam valve cylinder is vertical. This is claimed as important by the engineers who designed it (Messrs. Millholland, Martin & Co.), as it avoids all wear and friction from the drag of the piston and rod and consequent wearing of the cylinder on one side, as in horizontal machines. The air cylinder is forty inches in diameter and thirty-six inch stroke, placed on four cast iron columns supported over the bed plate of engine. The steam cylinder is bolted to the bed plate of the engine. The steam and air cylinders are both connected on the same piston and rod, making a complete blowing engine, of few parts, and these, easy of access, are constructed in a complete and symmetrical form, finished in the best style of workmanship. The engine combines many advantages, being provided with J. G. Millholland's patent balanced cylindrical slide valve, with steam packing rings, that never leak or blow through and are perfectly balanced under all pressures, working equally well and free from friction under one hundred and fifty pounds per square inch or under ten. This engine is a great desideratum to men who have charcoal furnaces now running with water power, which dries up in summer and freezes up in winter, or standing idle from the want of good modern machinery. Messrs. Millholland, Martin & Co., will build blowing engine complete, boiler, etc., make all the connections to start blowing the furnace forty days from the receipt of an order, and for the low figure of $3,500; and guaranteed to make forty tons of iron per week, with the ordinary eight hour turn. There are in this State and through the entire South good solid furnace stack idle for the want of an expenditure of a few thousand dollars invested in improved blowing machinery, as above described, which would prove a handsome fortune to the owner instead of an eyesore, which they prove to be in the condition in which they now are.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Pasquotank Superior Court.—The important cases tried were State vs. Enos Dennis. He is a colored man and was indicted for assault with intent to commit rape. The case was removed from Currituck. Verdict, guilty. Sentence, 5 years to Penitentiary. The State was represented by Solicitor Albertson, the defence by Grandy and Ball.

State vs. Geo. W. Rhodes. Indictments, rape, and an attempt to commit rape. This case elicited much interest and occupied much time. The assault was made upon a child not quite ten years of age. Verdict, guilty on the second count. Sentence, 15 years in the Penitentiary. For State, Solicitor Albertson; for defence, Col. Hinton, Col. Martin and Grandy.

Geo. W. Charles and others vs. W. W. Kennedy and others. Construction of a Will. Not a jury trial. Two days occupied in arguments. For plaintiff, John Pool and C. W. Grandy; for, Defendants Col. Hinton and Col. Martin.

State vs. Augustus Eason. A white man indicted for an assault with intent to commit rape on a colored woman. Verdict, guilty of assault. Sentenced 3 years. For State, Solicitor Albertson; for defence, Grandy.—Carolinian.

WALTZING ON A WAGER.—At a ball in Pittsburg a few evening ago, a prize—a gold ring—was offered to the lady and partner who should out waltz all competitors. At 12 o'clock the band struck up "Il Baccio," and a dozen couples started gayly off; at 1 A. M. only three remained on the floor; at 2 o'clock one of these three gave up, but the band played on and on, and the emulous survivors gavotted and whirled till even the spectators grew dizzy. At the end of the fourth hour blood began to trickle from the ends of the violinists' fingers, but still the dance continued. At three minutes past 4 o'clock one of the ladies fainted, and immediately after her partner followed her example, when the prize was presented to the winners amid the tumultuous applause of the spectators. The foolish quartette, more dead than alive, had to be carried to their homes in carriages. It was necessary to cut the girls' shoes from their feet, and their limbs swelled to an enormous size. All the four are now said to be in a precarious condition.

The Secretary of the Republican Executive Committee of Texas telegraphed that Davis, Republican, was elected Governor by 800 majority, and would assume his duties in a few days.

ATTORNEY GENERAL HOAR AND THE SENATE.

It appears that the opposition in the Senate to Attorney General Hoar for the Supreme Bench during the recent debate in executive session was led by Messrs. Conkling, Edmunds of Vermont, Morrill of Maine, and Matt. Carpenter. The following sketch of the position of Senators is given by a New York paper:

The debate was long, and at times conducted with great spirit, so much so as to create some ill feeling between the Senators themselves. The three prominent points urged against confirming Mr. Hoar were, first, the great injustice it would be doing to the Southern States by placing him on the bench to preside over their circuits when there are fully one hundred lawyers in those States equal, if not superior, to Judge Hoar in legal attainments from whom to select.

Second—His want of knowledge of local laws and his judicial unfamiliarity with the manner of practice and mode of procedure in the Southern courts.

Third—That in making appointments he has totally ignored the Southern States, and permitted himself to be controlled in great measure in making all other appointments by William M. Evarts, who is hostile to the principles of the republican party. These, in brief, are the principal points urged against Mr. Hoar, although one Senator gave as his reason for opposing him the rough and brusk manner in which he had been received at the Attorney General's office when calling on official business.

During the course of the debate Mr. Conkling and Senator Carpenter made a violent attack upon the New England States, charging that they have not only pushed forward and tried to control all the leading appointments, but to dictate the policy of the government itself. This caused some commotion among New England Senators, and Messrs. Sumner, Wilson and Patterson responded with spirit, defending New England from the charges caused by sectional jealousy.

The debate lasted over four hours, and it appearing, upon a canvass of the Senate by Mr. Hoar's friends, that he would be rejected by eleven votes if a final vote was taken, they agreed to lay his name upon the table, and have it withdrawn.

Judge Hoar's opponents tried to get his friends to agree not to call up his name again, but this they would not do, saying they were not authorized to bind Mr. Hoar to any particular course.

Mr. Warner, of Alabama, was the only Southern Senator who sustained Mr. Hoar, there voting in a body against him, together with a majority of the Western Senators, who appeared to be guided mainly by the report of the judiciary committee, who, with the exception of Mr. Trumbull, unanimously reported Mr. Hoar's name back to the Senate, with the recommendation that he be not confirmed.

HYDROPHOBIA.—A man named Alexander McDonald, residing near Trenton, New Jersey, died on the 21st inst., of hydrophobia, produced by the bite of a small dog, which he was carrying in his arms, about two weeks ago. Within a few years past, the Philadelphia Day says, four persons have died in that in city of hydrophobia, caused by the bites of pet dogs in play.—One of the deceased persons was a merchant, who died recently. We have read of several similar cases that have occurred in other parts of the country, from all which we infer that there is almost, if not quite, as much danger in the bite of a dog not rabid as in that of a mad dog.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public, and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1869.

☞ Theo. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

CHANGE of SCHEDULE.—We understand there has been change of schedule on all the railroads leading from this point; the trains on all of them arriving and departing sometime about midnight, at what particular hour we are not particularly informed.

This will enable us to do away with the issuing of two editions daily, and get out our paper for all the routes in one edition. We shall endeavor, as heretofore, to give the latest telegraphic and other news, up to the time of going to press.

This schedule gives us advantages we did not have by the former arrangement, to furnish the latest telegraphic dispatches in certain portions of our circulation, ahead of papers from all other points.

UPHOLSTERING.—We take occasion to remind persons who are moving at this season, that Rufus Harrison is an excellent hand to take up and put down their carpets, fix up the window curtains, upset mattresses or make them anew, and do all other jobs in that line, which it is so much more convenient to do at such a time than at any other. Rufus desires us to say, he has just received a quantity of elastic sponge, a new article for mattresses, said to be superior to anything yet used for making them, besides hair cloth for covering and repairing sofas &c., curtain fixtures and other articles in his line.

NEW ADS.—The tall woman, who is either eleven feet, eight inches, or eight feet, eleven inches—one or t'other—high; and the wild woman, who used to run down wild kangaroos and eat them alive, and, with her husband, who also accompanies her, lived in a hole in the ground, and the other wild woman that has hair enough on her head for a mattress, are all coming here, and will be at Tucker Hall next Monday and Tuesday.

See reward of ten dollars for a mare stolen.

R. H. Graves's school at Graham opens, for the next session, on the 24th of January.

Somebody in New York wants to buy a farm in North Carolina. See what he says.

SUPERIOR COURT.—A special term of the Superior Court for Wake County, was opened at the Court House in this city, on Monday, Judge Watts presiding. This special term only takes cognizance of cases on the civil docket, set for trial at the last regular term of the Court, and not of cases entered at that term.

The term will continue, we learn, till the cases on the docket are disposed of. A Court of Oyer and Terminer will be held on the 18th Jan., for the hearing of cases on the criminal docket for the county.

Hot notice, by W. R. Pepper.

Dealers auction, this evening W. H. Jones & Co.

RUMORED SUICIDE.—We are informed by a gentleman, who has lately returned from Person, that the Sheriff of that county recently committed suicide, by shutting himself in an upper room of his dwelling and cutting his throat with a razor. A paper was found in the room, written by him, requesting that he might be buried just as he was, in a plain pine coffin. There are no other particulars given.

HORSE THIEVES.—We learn from a gentleman from Johnston county, that a horse drover, stopping in Smithfield, had five of his horses stolen, on Sunday night last.—Three of them were traced in the direction of Goldsboro' and two in the direction of Bentonville, but neither party had been caught. On Monday, from certain information received, an investigation was commenced which, it is thought, will probably result in some rare developments, of which more hereafter.

PUBLIC MEETINGS IN SALISBURY AND GREENSBORO'.

There will be a mass meeting of Conservatives and Republicans, held in Salisbury, January 1st, to express the indignation of the people of Rowan, in regard to the "war bill," now pending before the Legislature.

Guilford is to have a meeting of the same discription to be held on the same day.

PUBLIC MEETING IN FRANKLIN.

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Franklin County, at Louisburg, the 8th 1870, for the purpose of expressing publicly their indignation, on account of the Militia Bill pending in the Legislature, and to consider other matters of interest to the people of the State.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1870, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, is now ready for distribution, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals appearing with the opening of the year, this is one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The BITTERS are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Rufus B. Wade has been re-appointed special agent at large on the mail depredation service.

There was no Cabinet meeting to-day.

There are in the Treasury $107,000,000 gold; certificates, $37,000,000; currency $10,000,000.—The coast statement will probably show a decrease of $7,000,000.

The Tribune says, "A test case has just been decided by the Court of Appeals in this city, reversing a previous judgment of the Supreme Court, and fixing the principle, that when a broker buys stock on a margin for a customer, he is not at liberty to sell it because it falls below the margin, without giving notice of the time and place of sale, and considering the stock as the property of the customer. The Court in this instance, makes the broker who sold under such circumstances, liable for the highest price the stock may have reached, even after the date of this trial. This will be new doctrine to Wall street.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—It is reported that E. J. Oakley, has been embezzling the funds of the Merchant's Exchange Bank, for a long time. The deficit will reach $200,000.

The Post Office authorities are negotiating with the Indian Anchor and several other lines to carry the mails at the reduced rates; the negotiations are not yet concluded.

The investigation of the Merchants Exchange Bank irregularities show a deficiency already of $150 000, probably much larger. The names of the defaulters have not transpired. The Bank claims the ability to meet its liabilities.

DR. LAWRENCE'S
Highly Concentrated Compound
FLUID EXTRACT OF Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

Prepared Solely by
J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.
ORGANIC CHEMIST,
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 10, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Koskoo in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value; in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am sir, with much respect your obedient servant,
R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

Princess Anne Court House, Va. Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public. Yours, truly;
T. F. PENTRESS, M. D.

KOSKOO CURES SCROFULA IN THE WORST FORMS. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well-known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from Scrofula since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GREATLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a SPECIFIC for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also cured my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c.,
A. W. MILLS.

KOSKOO, THE GREAT INVIGORATOR.—Read the following from the Rev. Joseph R. Martin, pastor of Wesley Chapel, Portsmouth, Va.:

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in a condition of debility—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator. Yours, &c.,
JOSEPH R. MARTIN.

KOSKOO!
CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo is AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY CURES. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c., MRS. M. E. A. NELSON.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored.

I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant,
O. B. MEARS.
No. 5 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pactile, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Koskoo. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No. 13 MARKET SQUARE,
Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23, 1869

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of Koskoo RESTORED ME TO HEALTH.
Yours, truly,
J. G. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

PORTSMOUTH, Va., October 25, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his "Koskoo" with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression.
W. H. CHRISTIAN.

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WHEATLEY, Prin. Class. and Math. School, Edenton City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. ENGLISH, Mount Olive, Oct. 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D. JOHNSON, Fairmount, Sept. 28, 1869.

I am and ever have been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. H. SMITH, Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Centreville, Co., 11, 1869.

Monteith's Geography" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. Am at a loss in making substitute in my order.—Monteith's Philosophy for first introduction.—G. W. JEWETT, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1858, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Gaunt's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. A. DUGGER, Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No. 4) into my school. I have in the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith's and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VAUGHAN Editor Bee Hive, Oct. 31, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this state of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long need no others when these could be obtained.—Dr. WM. B. HARRIS, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—STINSON IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. GUERRARIS, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS. H. FOX, President Stanhope Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. KERR, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies' Arithmetics, Cook's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Tuttle, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hope P. O. uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and Yonge's Grammar; Mrs. Fanny Bingham, Cary P. O., uses the National series; R. L. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., has introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 150 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National Series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MARGETT, Chatham county, Sept 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our state Schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High School, Oct. 23, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will admit no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the state.—Statesville American, 1869.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Waldesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "Pack" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,61

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

The ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 999 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,327 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
